

CALL FOR PAPERS

“The Real California Gold”: Indigenous & Immigrant Heritage Languages of California

University of California, Davis
February 5-6, 2010

Special Performance of Ascención: A dramatic ethno-historical cantata

Keynote speaker: Leanne Hinton, Professor Emerita,
University of California, Berkeley

We invite submissions for presentations from scholars and community members in all disciplines who are involved in community outreach, research on heritage and endangered languages, and second language learning and teaching. In order to focus on issues of concern to scholars and teachers in California, but also to include as broad a range of interests as possible, we particularly encourage proposals in the following thematic areas:

- Current cultural and language revitalization activities in schools and communities
- Innovation in pedagogy and methodologies
- The role of literature in language and cultural learning

DEADLINE

All submissions must be received by December 6, 2009

Submit abstracts online here:

All papers must represent original, unpublished work. Presentations may be up to 20 minutes long. All submissions will be evaluated anonymously. Confirmation of receipt of submissions will be sent by e-mail. If your paper is accepted, your submitted abstract will be used for the conference handbook. Notice of acceptance or rejection will be sent to the primary author by December 16th via e-mail.

Pre-registration materials and further information will be available in early December, and a preliminary schedule will be available by January 15, 2010 on the SLAI website.

FUNDING

Note to faculty, lecturers, and graduate students affiliated with the University of California: There will be limited funding provided by the Second Language Acquisition Institute for travel and lodging expenses for both participants and attendees.
